

Blood Pressure Log

Name: _____

Monitor / cuff: _____

A record sheet only. Follow your clinician's instructions on when and how to measure, and never start, stop or change a medicine because of what a chart looks like.

Blood pressure readings fall into well-known categories, but reading them is your doctor's or nurse's job: take the log to your appointment and let them tell you what it shows.